Dear Mr. Ruby:

This is Thanksgiving morning and as I'm thinking about some of the things I'm thankful for, my thoughts kept turning to you. Yes, Jack, I'm thankful to you and for you. Somehow it seemed just a little less painful to see our President buried knowing that the one who killed him had already paid his penalty and by the same token it would, to me, have compounded the insult and injury of this enormous crime had there been a long delay in exacting his punishment from this man who killed my President.

If course I'm aware of all the arguments—that will be used to condemn you—“anarchy”; “this wrongs not making a right”; “mob rule”—and all the rest but somehow at this moment my thoughts turn to Jesus Christ's words. I recall that when Mary, the woman who had been forgiven much anointed Him with expensive ointment—there were those present who accused her of not acting in the best interests of society but Jesus said let her alone, she hath done what she could.” (Luke 14: 6-8). In the same way I feel that you have done what you could, out of devotion to our President. You didn't stop to count the cost but you ~~know~~ that the death of our friend and leader must be avenged and you ~~know~~ figuratively already laid down your life for him just as thousands of American boys have laid down their lives at the call of their Presidents. Jesus said “Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.”

I don't know what the courts will demand of you as penalty. I hope and pray—that they will not punish you doing in blind devotion what I feel a million other Americans wanted to do. At the time I heard the news I said to someone "Thank God someone had the guts to do it" and although other thought makes it seem less fitting now I still feel a sense of gratitude to you. To paraphrase Winston Churchill who said it about England when she was striking back at her enemies I feel that an allusion to this being your "finest hour" is also fitting.

Thank you Jack, and may God bless

Dear Mr. Ruby:

I am writing to let you know that we are with you all the way. We believe that this world is a lot better off without Lee Harvey Oswald. We along with other Americana mourn the death of our great President, John F. Kennedy. We do not feel that Oswald deserved a trial. Anyone who could do what he did and laugh about it is an animal. Most animals are more decent than he was. It depressed us all when we heard of the terrible thing that happened to our great President. We truly hope that you will be acquitted. Dear Mr. Ruby.

Whatever trials we may have to undergo in this temporary life is not so important and whether mankind forgives
us our trespasses
of the law likewise is of secondary importance.

That which is important is that God our Father in heaven will forgive our trespasses, irrespect of the seriousness of them, all that is 25-115

with the exception of one and that is a sin against the Holy Spirit.

Have you a Bible?
if not perhaps you can get one

If not the Bible
reads these words of Jesus thru St Mark in the 3rd chapter the 28th and 29th verses:

Verily I say unto you, all sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men but he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit hath never forgiveness but is in danger of 115 55A

eternal damnation.

Mr. Ruby, a truly repentant heart
supported by a prayer for forgiveness is recognized by God
and assures us
of His blessing.

Mr. Ruby as you perhaps realize, there are many people in the world, even in the churches that cannot understand the Bible, Gods letter to them, when they read it mainly because they cannot grasp the continuity of it.

I am not a church member Mrs. Kirby but I have made a deep study of the Bible and have prayed to God to help me understand His Word so that I might help others to understand it also and so I have (and I believe with Gods help) just finished writing a manuscript to be published in book form that will aid anyone to understand Gods Word when they read the Bible and find out the wonderful things it contains.

25A

Do you know that two angels of heaven at one time in the past, sinned against God?

They left their heavenly estate and came down to earth and materialized as men just so they could marry the women of the earth for the purpose of sexual pleasure.

We read about this in the 2nd verse of the 6th chapter of Genesis the first

1. 369:
Book of the Bible.

Space here does not permit to tell in about what events - ally happened to them even though it is very interesting although it is explained in the manuscript.

Mr. Kirby I haven't the money to get this book printed and I am writing to you for help. It may be that God has purposed it this way, my writing to you, to get it printed. I have no idea what it would cost for the first few volumes but I imagine any where from five hundred to a thousand dollars and then on the money received from the sale of those more could be printed. This all however is in the hands of God and aren't we all?

I am praying for you Mr. Beeby and I trust my prayer on your behalf shall be answered. Yours too will be if you pray for forgiveness

369

as Jesus tells us to do in the 6th chapter of Matthew verses 6-7 and 12.

However if you can get a Bible please read the entire 6th chapter and may God bless you and help you

Sincerely

When I see a picture of our beloved, late President or his wonderful family, I say to myself "Thank God for a man of courage like Jack Ruby!"

Your courageous act has saved us all from the agony of watching and reading about the President's murder for months to come. Certainly in a long trial he would have tried to justify his crime, casting aspersions on the President, putting Mrs. Kennedy to much grief. You act has preserved the President's memory unsullied. I DONT SUPPOSE anybody will shoot Jack Ruby. No, he'll be released in due course. And probably become a hero in some circles as the guy who put a gun to the man who almost certainly killed John F. Kennedy.

/ So the clean and honest sorrow of millions is mucked up by this slob. /

The President of the United States, by historical definition and by the oath he speaks, stands for law and order. That was part of the horror of Mr. Kennedy's death by a sniper's bullet. His assassin could have been tried calmly in a quiet courtroom. That would have been part of our treasured memory of President Kennedy.

DALLAS' NAME was not black enough. Now it has allowed a squalid keeper of a state tease joint to take justice into his grubby hands and to molest and mangle it before the world.

The shock and shame of this nation had reached the point of unendurability in the violent death of the President.

But now before millions watching on television the incredible Dallas police have allowed justice to be raped again.

It is time for some solemn soul-searching in this country. Are we going to allow ourselves to reach the point where justice is to be taken into the hands of any self-willed individual? Is orderly justice to be supplanted by mob rule?

This, as Chief Justice Warren has warned, is the price we pay for fanaticism.

Dear Jack; Minneapolis, Minnesota.

I know it gets pretty lonesome sitting in there and of all things on Thanksgiving day and wish things weren't as they are. it was really a terrible thing that had to happen to the President. I wish I could of traded places with him instead of the way things has been with us hey I dont no.

a couple years ago I come down with a sore throat I thought I had a cold and it kept getting worse and last March the 5th. they said it was cancer and took out my Velled cords and Voice Box also my Thyroid glands, and here been in the Hosp. most of the summer and its rough, but lost practically every thing we have as I cannot work, and if I dont get a couple car payments in it will be the last of that, my Wife is blind on her left eye and needs surgery had on it, but she is doing waitress work and working double shifts as we need her. why couldn't Oswald take a shot at me instead of the President as I really dont have nothing to live for, we have never had a X Mass since we were married. I am 45 yrs old. the Wife 34 and Anniversary is Dec. 31st, and this is going to be a mother thank year for us. I guess, as it will be for you. I only wish there was some thing I could do to help you and your Sister out. I know you meant well for what you did, but it really should of been up to the Court to prove him guilty first, as he did not have a trial but I don't blame you one bit as I guess more than one felt the same way as you did about it, and they will never find another man as Mr. Kennedy was, he was tops.

We all like to see you set there over some low down tramp as Oswald was we feel sorry for his family as its rough on them, as his Mother also as we can about imagine how she feels over the President.

Any way its over with and there isnt nothing nobody can do about it, as he is gone, its too bad, and a terrible thing to happen, also

Dear Mr. Ruby:

God loves you. This may be your only message of hope in days of trial.

Americans were shocked and grieved as tragedy followed tragedy in our nation. Many have lived - and many have died on the battlefield - to make this a nation of law and order. So you cannot now look to man for hope.

But God loves you - not because of what you are or what you have done. He loves you - as he loves all of us - in spite of what you are and what you have done.

As you go on trial for your life, and face death, you may want to know that there is eternal life, purchased by a Death for us, the death of Jesus Christ. I am enclosing a folder with Scripture verses on it. They tell the way to life. If you want further information about what God has to say concerning you, please notify me and I shall be glad to send you a New Testament.

Mr. Jack Rubenstein:

11-27-63

I am a Sunday School superintendant here in Springfield. Last Sunday, I asked our church people to do something special for Thanksgiving. Like write a letter to someone in a hospital, a government official and say thanks for something they did or a word of condolence to someone less fortunate. I think you would qualify in this last class, at this time.

I don't know what your faith is or if you have any. There is no atheist in the fox holes and I dare say there aren't many in prison and in your situation. For thanksgiving, there is the understanding that my GOD and YOURS, is able to forgive and forget. Reference, our Bible. Men sometimes can't forgive and this is the major difference between them and God. "All things are possible with God." It was a terrible thing that Lee Harvey Oswald did, destroying the President of America. It was wrong what you did, taking vengeance into your own hands. "Vengeance is mine saith the Lord." Didn't you think He could do it with justice and adequately? Let us all remember, "We have all sinned and come short of the glory of God," or "Let him who hath not sinned, cast the first stone." What you did, what Oswald did, what happened to our President, happens every day. Men kill men, with gun, car, etc. Only this deed, seemed different because of the victim. My only advice and I urge you to purge yourself of all hatred for Oswald.

I like to think that we all are tools in God's hand. We may not like this thought, but God uses us as instruments, as examples to accomplish His will. Thus no matter how good we are, or how bad, we serve His purpose. This may not be much help, but at least He is able to deliver you, if you so desire it.

Would you sign and return the enclosed card for me? The information could help people in my Sunday School.

James H. Hagen

Believe this, my prayers go out for you and that you may know God.

Dear Mr. Ruby:
I noted in the San Antonio light that you wondered about the rights of the public to your recent actions.

People in general and newspaper editorial opinion across the nation regard you as a most stupid and senseless action in your part, Jack. You have denied due process to an accused - his right to a matter which he has done to a fair trial. Further, you have caused all of us to have a sense of complete frustration - by your senseless act, you have prevented the country and world from ever knowing the truth about Oswald's crime, and thereby have hurt our country in the eyes of the world - where was the trade sense of this action display and justice in your setting yourself up as judge, jury, and executioner? The Communists are having a propaganda field day.

So how do we feel? We are disgusted, frustrated, and angry at you. You would have done better to have shot yourself.
P.S. On recommending you for a medal for your murder of Oswald, your corpse soon assume fool.

Harry Ford, Boston, Mass.
Was launched Oct. 21, 1797, under her first commander, Captain Samuel Nicholson. In 1798 she helped clear the West Indies as well as our more numerous of French simulators, and bombarded the forts of Tripoli in 1805 to 1805. During the War of 1812 she was a success of victories over the British fleet. It was Oliver Wendell Holmes's poem "Old Ironsides" which prompted the people to raise money for the preservation of this ship in 1892.

Dear Mr. Ruby;

I note you are receiving mail. No doubt there are friends and others who would excuse and perhaps even congratulate you for "getting that Communist". These might lead you into believing that what you have done is somehow a "good" thing. And so, I am prompted to write this letter myself, tho' my family may complain at a late Thanksgiving dinner.

It is my most earnest belief that you in your way have done as great a disservice to this country as Lee Oswald, in his, has done. For you have closed the best avenue to our discovering the "why" of this awful thing, from which we might have gained somehow a sense of "salvage", not to mention the distorted picture of our system of justice which is now before the world.

These are crimes for which you should surely be on trial. May God have mercy on your soul.

Mr. Ruby,

I disapprove completely in your actions concerning the taking of another persons life.

As an American I defend the right of every man to have the right of a fair trial by jury.

We cannot live by mob rule, regardless of emotions.

Mr. Reilly -

You are probably sitting on your fat intellect at this moment considering with misplaced self-righteousness a plea of temporary insanity to help ease the sad result of your stupid and senseless act last Sunday.

I have no real hope of making a dent in your delusion, but for the sake of my own conscience want you to know how at least one citizen of the nation feels about your blind, unreasoning act.

First you have deprived us - the world outside the Dallas Police Dept. - of knowing truly that the sole murderer of President Kennedy is known.

Secondly, in carrying out execution outside the law based on conviction by proclamation, you have denied us of probably the only source who, if actually guilty, could tell us why?

possibly be the most urgently important knowledge to come from what presently stands as the brutal, purposeless murder of a man who,
no matter ones personal political beliefs, was contributing his intellect and sincerity toward a world peace in a very real and hopefully lasting manner.

People in general are very susceptible where even the hint of insanity is involved in murder, to slough off any real introspection as to causes and any concerted positive action to reduce probability of reoccurrence.
I had hoped, faintly, after the fact that Mr. Kennedy's murder would prove not to be the act of a madman, but rather planned in cold calculation by some proponent of many HATE groups away

③

3511 proven this latter circumstance could well motivate a sincere reassessment among Americans and even the world of the tensions which contribute to the hatreds basically responsible for senseless acts of violence. By playing God, you have rendered this possibility most remote.

If you consider the foregoing idealistic, remember that Mr. Kennedy himself asked us to make a "beginning" and from the real reason for his death we might have made that beginning and rendered his sacrifice purposeful.

I could go on at length about the travesty of your act upon our conception of law and justice, but will ask you only one further question - having demonstrated conclusively your lack of faith in the ultimate justice of our system should not you, if anyone, forfeit the right to trial? Well, try it.

35 I hope that there will be 1 found for the jury twelve residents of Dallas with guts and sufficient pride in their American heritage to cut through the mass of shame, self-pity and false nobility that is sure to flow at your trial and reach a just verdict.
